01 — LOGO

The crest

An "SA" monogram in Cormorant Garamond, held in a crest ringed with 48 small diamonds. The diamonds nod to West African textile patterning; the star above marks the meeting point of three kitchens. Use the crest alone where space is tight, and the lockups wherever the name must be read.

Please don't

The crest is the most recognisable thing we own. Keep it calm, gold, and uncluttered.

Stretch, squash or skew the crest.

Recolour it outside the brand palette.

Add shadows, glows, bevels or gradients.

Place it on busy patterns or photos without a calm backing.

Rotate it.

Fade it below full opacity on dark backgrounds.

Use gold on ivory: it fails contrast (2.1:1). Use obsidian.

Re-type, abbreviate or redraw the name.

02 — COLOUR

Obsidian, gold & three accents

Dark luxury is our default: obsidian grounds every page, gold leads the eye. Ivory sections give menus room to breathe. Terracotta, crimson and palm each speak for one kitchen, so use them for small accents, never large fields.

04 — MOTIFS & VOICE

How we look and sound

Our own zigzag-and-diamond pattern, inspired by West African textile banding and the crest's diamond ring. Use it at 5–10% opacity behind headings, on packaging and menu covers. Pair with thin gold rules, generous whitespace and full-bleed food photography.

Photography: warm, low-key light; food fills the frame; real Lagos ambience. No stock watermarks, no other brands in shot.

WE ARE	SO WE SAY	NOT
Luxurious	"Slow-smoked over firewood, finished at your table."	"Best jollof in Lagos!!! 🔥🔥"
Warm	"Welcome back, Adaeze. Your usual table is ready."	"Dear valued customer"
Confident	"Three kitchens. One table."	"We try to offer a bit of everything"
Welcoming	"First time with pierogi? Start with Ruskie."	Unexplained jargon or menu snobbery
Elegant	One idea per sentence. Short headlines.	Exclamation marks, ALL CAPS sentences
